SUBJECT: JORDAN DENIES INTERNET REPORT ON MISSING FIGHTERS, PILOTS

REF: OSC REPORT GMP20090105640003

Classified By: Ambassador R. Stephen Beecroft for reasons 1.4 (b) and (d).

¶1. (S/NF) According to an Open Source Center (OSC) report, the jihadist Ana Al-Muslim website posted a report on January 5 that "a Jordanian Foreign Ministry spokesman stated that three warplanes disappeared" on January 4 as well as "five pilots, who have been described as having Islamic leanings." The pilots were identified by the website as Nidal As'ad Ubaydat, Muhammad Fadil Ubaydat, Nasir Jamal Al-Ma'awinah, Ali Abdallah Al-Rawashidah, and Mustafa Hasan Ubaydah. It stated further that this incident was noteworthy because it took place as Gaza was "under Israeli attack."

¶2. (U) Brigadier General Malek Al-Habashneh, Royal Jordanian Air Force Director of Air Operations, told Air Attache on January 5 that there is no truth to the website report. Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA) spokesperson Nassar Al-Habashneh also denied the report. (Note: Brigadier General Habashneh and the MFA spokesperson are distant cousins. End note.)
